Six Chillicothe FFA'ers named State Farmers

Six members of the Chillicothe Future Farmers of America received the prestigious State Farmer Degree during special ceremonies at the State F.F.A. Convention held in Columbia.

The six Chillicothe chapter members are Donnie Ireland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ireland; Richard Dowell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Dowell; Brian Pfaff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pfaff; Chris Bonderer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Bonderer; Steven Meservey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Meservey; and Rod Bealer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Bealer.

The State Farmer Degree is awarded to only three percent of the F.F.A. membership in Missouri. To receive the degree, there is a number of requirements that must be met. The State Farmer Degree recipient must have been an active F.F.A. member for at least 24 months. He or she should have earned and productively invested at least $500 by the member's own effort or worked at least 600 hours in a Supervised Occupational Experience Program (SOEP).

The F.F.A. member must be able to demonstrate leadership ability by performing ten parliamentary procedures, plus be able to give a five-minute speech and serve as a chapter officer or a committee chairman. The State Farmer applicant needs to participate in the planning and completion of the chapter program of work activities and participate in at least five F.F.A. activities above the local level.

After completing these requirements, the candidate must also complete an eight-page application containing the size and growth of their SOEP, agri-business program, leadership within the F.F.A. and activities in school, church and community. Each applicant is also required to submit a record book containing a complete, detailed summary of the applicant's years in Future Farmers of America.

Barrie Bothwell is American Farmer

BARRIE BOTHWELL
American Farmer

Barrie Bothwell, a graduate member of Southwest, was an active member of the Chillicothe F.F.A. Chapter. He received the American Farmer Degree in November at the National Convention held in Kansas City.

The American Farmer Degree is the highest degree offered by the Future Farmers of America and goes to only one member for every 1,000 in the organization. Bothwell is the fifteenth member of the Chillicothe chapter to receive this degree since 1946.

Barrie is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wells Bothwell of Mooresville. He lives on a farm ten miles west of Chillicothe and farms with his parents.

The Bothwells' farming operation consists of wheat, soybeans and beef cattle.

He was a member of the farm management team and farm mechanics team during the two years he attended the Chillicothe Vocational Agriculture Department. In 1981 his farm management team won the state and national contests.

The American Farmer Degree is based on the quality and size of the applicant's farming operation and the scope of his or her leadership activities. The applicant must complete a comprehensive application and is visited by both state and national F.F.A. officials.
