ELEVEN OUTSTANDING MEMBERS OF THE CHILLICOTHE FFA CHAPTER RECEIVE THE STATE DEGREE ON APRIL 18 IN COLUMBIA, MO.

These members had to meet a number of qualifications and fill out an application that had to be in agreement with their record book before receiving the degree.

The State Degree is awarded to the top three percent of the total State FFA Membership. This is the highest degree that the Missouri FFA Association can bestow on its members.

Receiving the FFA Degree from our chapter were:

Leda Smith, daughter of Richard and Linda Smith; Amy Dedrick, daughter of Dan and Pam Dedrick; Anthony Schreiner, son of Jim and Janet Schreiner; Jim Skipper, son of Paul and Pat Skipper; Jerad Minnick, son of Ron and Pam Minnick;

Clint Baxter, son of Danny and Barbara Baxter; Aaron Peel, son of Ray and Debbie Peel; Mendy Wilson, daughter of Everette and Darlene Wilson; Robbie Skipper, son of Wayne and Pat Skipper; Alicia Klingenberg, daughter of Rick and Janie Klingenberg; Amber Redford, daughter of Marcus and Willa Redford.

These eleven members have worked hard to achieve this degree and are to be congratulated on their efforts and achievements.

National Convention

The 69th National FFA Convention was held in Kansas City, November 14-16, 1996. The Chillicothe FFA Chapter sent over 70 of the 37,000 members that were in attendance. This convention is the largest youth convention in the nation. Those members that attended saw the American FFA degrees awarded, heard nationally-known speakers, attended motivational, leadership and career development workshops, and witnessed the election of the six new National FFA officers.

Five members of the Chillicothe Chapter received the highest degree attainable. Joe Eddy, Angie Dedrick, Scott Potter, Cliff Smith and Tanya Smith were awarded their American FFA Degree on Saturday, November 16. This honor recognizes demonstrated leadership skills and outstanding achievements in agriculture business, production, and service programs.

Clint Boon represented the Chillicothe FFA Chapter and the Missouri FFA Association in the cereal grain production proficiency award. Proficiency awards recognize FFA members' outstanding SAE (supervised agriculture experience) programs.

Laura Skipper and Monica Suchsland demonstrated their outstanding talents at the national convention. Suchsland was selected to sing in the National FFA Chorus. Laura performed at several competitions in the National FFA talent.

Aaron Peel competed at the national level for an agri-entrepreneurship award. The award is part of a new program designed to increase the amount of entrepreneurial information taught in agricultural education programs.

Amber Redford participated in the first demonstration of the National FFA Agriscience Fair. The purpose of the agriscience fair demonstration is to introduce the agriscience fair concept to students and FFA advisors. Redford displayed a zoology project titled "Comparison of the Effects of the Addition of Probiotics to Swine Rations in Regard to Animal Health and Production Efficiency." No judging occurred this year.

Jim Grozinger, Chapter advisor, received his honorary American FFA Degree at the Friday morning session. The honorary American FFA Degree is awarded to 50 out of the 11,200 FFA advisors in the nation.
